

About Us

O'Sullivan's Hair and Beauty was opened in 1983. We have had a salon on the Southbank since 1985. The salon is owned by hairdressing brothers, Tim and Martin O'Sullivan. We are located next to the landmark Gallery, The Tate Modern, which gives us inspiration to be as contemporary as possible yet retain a classic style. We have the most wonderful clients and look forward to welcoming you soon.

Treatment Menu

Colour Enhancement Treatments

Treatments ensure seamless colour results time after time by protecting your hair before, during and after any professional colouring service. Ask us how!

Olaplex from £31

Repair and protect hair from damage caused by chemical treatments, heat styling and environmental stressors. Its patented formula works by reconnecting and strengthening disulfide bonds within the hair structure.

OLAPLEX

Absolut Repair Molecular £26

Absolut Repair Molecular range from L'Oréal Professionnel Paris is dedicated to restoring very damaged hair. With a patented technology, the range deeply repairs your hair by restoring its molecular structure.
